SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 26, 1877

LOCAL AND STATE AFFAIRS.

Moon changes to-morrow morning at 1.20.
Sun rises at 6.08 and sets at 5.52. Day's length 11 hours, 40 minutes.

W. D. Fowler is erecting a new house on the farm which he recently purchased near Dover.
Efforts are being made in Laurel to form a military company, and also to organize a brass band.

Albert Curry is rebuilding his residence near Greenwood, making it one of the finest in Sussex county.

John Rhodes, colored, was hung, Friday, at New Castle, for the murder of James Temple, last April, also colored.

John Gumbly, a worthless negro, of Sussex county, shot and badly injured a colored woman a few nights ago.

Wm. Morris & Son are selling off their stock of dry goods in Milford, with a view of getting into business in Wilmington.

The Harlan & Hollingsworth Company of Wilmington are shipping cars and trucks to Brazil for the Dom Pedro railroad.

Work is very brisk at Poo, Jones & Co., in Wilmington. They are keeping their hands employed until late every night.

A tramp rifled the pockets of Mike Smith, residing near Milford, on Sunday last, of $40, and then left for parts unknown.

John Hanna, formerly of Wilmington, is building a new addition to his residence on his farm, near Georgetown, Sussex county.

Dagworthy Joseph, keeper of the Big Light House at Cape Henlopen, has purchased a farm of 70 acres, of Levin Dillard, for $500.

The concert of the Hayes Quartet at New Castle Saturday evening last was very successful and gave much satisfaction.

Mary Melzer, milaite, sentenced to imprisonment for life for killing her child, at Newark, two or three years ago, escaped from jail last Saturday.

Now is the time to buy cheap goods. Our merchants all have full stocks and are selling their goods at prices to rival those of the city merchants.

Newark is to have a race course. Some of her young men have clubbed together and rented a field in which they intend to make a track.

The Sussex Journal says there seems to be a question in Georgetown as to who shall receive the money for the new school building, and the sooner the matter is settled the better it will be for all classes.

Stout ex. Hall.—This case, which has been pending in the Kent county court since and has caused so much talk, has finally been settled, the court being in favor of Mr. Hall $3,000, and is relinquishing the life interest in the house on the Dover "Green" and the farm in the Neck.

The Newark Ledger says: The Directors of Homewood Driving Park, Newark, with Prof.
E. D. Porter, of Delaware College, laid out their track on Tuesday last. It is said it will be one of the finest driving parks in the country, and will be ready for use on Saturday, September 29th.

The Sussex Journal says: John Gumbly, Jr., a worthless negro, shot on Saturday night last, a negro woman named Eliza Mitchell.
John has been one of a gang of lawless negroes who have for some years preyed upon the people of this section. The woman is still alive, and the murderous assailant is in jail awaiting development.

Sheriff's Sales.—Sheriff Grubb sold, at the Hotel of H. D.
Paulin, in Odessa, on Monday, the farm of the late Joseph A. Lord to Wm. C. Ellison, Esq., for $1100, and a horse and lot in Odessa to same for $600. He also sold the farm, 120 acres, of Jos. W. Vandegrift near Odessa, to George Dickinson, Esq., for $3,500.

Pine Property at Public Sale.— Samuel Townsend, Esq., as executor of the late John Townsend will offer at public sale on Tuesday next at Townsend Hotel the home farm of the said deceased. The farm contains 170 acres of excellent land, is most desirable for location and offers a rare chance to a person desiring a home in the country to purchase a place where it would be pleasant to reside.

Trustee Meeting.—
An adjourned meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Forest Presbyterian Church will be held in the Library room of the church on Monday afternoon next at 3 o'clock, to hear reports of committees appointed at last meeting and to transact such other business as may be presented.

Fatal R. R. Accident.—
John McElroy, a brakeman on the P. & W., was badly crushed between two cars which he was trying to couple, on Tuesday evening, at the Delaware Junction, that he died the next morning. He was twenty-three years old and had only been on the road a short time.

Attempted Murder.— Last evening, at Mrs. Kate Dougherty was standing in the door of her father's residence on Madison street, near Eighth, she was suddenly confronted by her cousin, Andrew Dougherty, who seemed to be in a half intoxicated condition. He commenced to converse with her, and soon an altercation of words ensued about some trivial matter, and he becoming enraged at her, suddenly drew a revolver, and fired at her. She noticing the action, prepared herself, and when he pulled the trigger she threw up her hand striking him, thereby saving her life, as he had pointed the barrel directly at her face. He intended the bullet to be a fatal one, and her escape was a very narrow one. As it was the ball passed just over her right ear, grazing the skin, and the powder singled her hair.

The effect of his rash deed frightened him, and he started off in a great hurry. The report of the revolver created quite an excitement for some time, but when it was found that the young lady was not badly hurt the excitement subsided.—Wilmington Gazette of Tuesday.

Sewing Machines at the Fair.

The Singer Sewing Machine Manufacturing Co. will make a fine display of their superior machines at the Fair next week, also a quantity of the silk which they use with it. The Singer is a favorite machine, 250,000 of them having been sold last year, which the company claim is over 100,000 more than were sold of any other make in the same time.

Some Big Apples. "Uncle Zack Beaten."

Mr. Samuel Townsend brought up a half dozen apples last week which go clear ahead of Uncle Zack's big apples of last week. Their weights were as follows: 1-12 oz., 2-13 oz., 1-15 oz., 1-15 oz., 1-17 oz. How's that for big, Uncle Zack? You will have to do better or yield the palm and let Uncle Sam take the belt.

Fire at Seaford.

The extensive Shell Lime Works of M. Colbourne & Co., at Seaford, Del., were discovered to be on fire about 12 o'clock, on Monday night. Although the flames had gathered considerable headway, their further progress was speedily checked by the prompt response of the citizens when the alarm was sounded.
The fire is supposed to have originated from spontaneous combustion, immense quantities of lime being stored for the Fall trade. The damage was principally confined to the roof, and will not cause any interruption to business.

Costly Sport.

Recently Mrs. Ann Jane Mullen, of Ogletown, appeared before Judge Fraser, and sought warrants for the arrest of several parties, on the charge of vagrancy, but when they were brought up for a hearing she failed to appear. An attachment was issued and served upon her by Constable Whitehead, who brought the delinquent to the "Square" office this morning. The "Square" gave her the alternative of paying the costs of the case, or committing to jail. She chose the former, and went home a wiser and a poorer woman.

New Advertisements.

We ask the special attention of our readers to the following new advertisements which appear in this issue: Meers, Wm. H. Moore & Co., new stock of fine goods for fall and winter, of all kinds; S. M. Reynolds, large stock of fine Dress Goods, Flannels, Trimmings, etc.; Mr. A. H. Russell, removal to new store on the "Square"; Mrs. Grubb, card in regard to boarders; Miss Tighman, select school; Del. State Fire Insurance Co., a statement of losses by fire paid within two years; Gibson & Bennett, "triumph in horticulture"; Miss A. M. Boyer, "Register's Order"; Middletown merchants, Notice of hours for closing their stores; Mr. R. T.
Smith, New Jewelry Store; E. N. Vallandig-ham, "Pupils wanted."

Some Wholesome Advice.

Visitors to the Fair next week should improve the opportunity to lay in at least a part of their fall supply of goods at some of the excellent stores of Middletown. Our merchants have splendid stocks, and are selling their goods at bottom rates, and now is the first time to buy. This purchase may be made prudently we advise all to read the advertisements in the Transcript and be their own judges as to the best places to get what they want. People who can't be satisfied at some of our stores must be hard to please indeed.

Machinery at the Fair.

Col. J. C. Townsend the energetic agent of D. M. Osborne & Co., Auburn, N. Y., informs us that he will have the new celebrated "Osborn" self-binding Harrow that attracted so much attention at the Centennial, on exhibition at our fair, having procured a steam engine to run it and will show the binding qualities of this wonderful machine, also will have the celebrated Wheeler No. 6 Reaper and Mower Combined, both self-rake and dropper, Wheeler No. 1 light mower, also Kirby and Burdick independent reapers.
The Colonel just took from the Boston Fair in forms to be took three premiums and sold all his sample machines on the grounds. Our farmers will find it advantageous to examine closely this department of our fair.

The Fair Next Week.

The managers are hard at work completing their arrangements for the fair next week.
The exhibits for the races are all filled, and the prizes for the races are rapidly filling up. The display of stock, poultry, fruits, vegetables, machinery, etc., promises to be unusually fine, and nothing remains but for the ladies to bring in their articles and fill up their department. Mrs. Hayes, of University, Pa., we understand, will not be at the fair with her goods this year, and unless our neighborhood ladies come up right lively, her display may be missed. So walk up ad ladies to the Secretary's office and hand in your entries and let your display be one that will show to the people from other sections what you can do when you make up your minds to try.

Successful Delawareans.

We clip the following sketch of the "rise and progress" of two of Middletown's young men from the Every Evening and Commercial.
While the prosperity and success of these gentlemen seems almost marvellous, it is nothing more than the deserved reward of merit and the natural result of acknowledged ability and energy.

"Three years ago, Mr. John P. Burris, of Middletown, then just graduated at the University of Michigan, went out to California, where he had been offered a lucrative position in a large school at Oakland. Mr. Burris gained rapidly in the esteem of the people with educational instincts on the Pacific coast, and became principal of the institution to which he had gone a simple assistant professor.
His ability and enterprise obtained the recognition of the entire press of San Francisco and Oakland, and last spring feeling the necessity of a preparatory school to the University of California, Mr. Burris was advised by the faculty of that institution to open an institution at Berkeley which would meet the want.

After mature deliberation he decided to embark in the enterprise, and during the past summer erected under the shadow of the University, a commodious and convenient building, which was opened this fall, with the approbation and patronage of the faculty of that institution. The success of the enterprise has been remarkable. The school is now overflowing and applicants are turned away in scores, owing to the limited capacity of the school structure.

The institution is known as the Berkeley Gymnasium and with a full faculty is doing a good work in California. A large building will be erected in time for the coming school year, capable of accommodating three hundred pupils. Mr. Burris is the president of the faculty and owns the institution. He has appointed Mr. Philip R. Boone, also of Middletown, and a fellow classmate at Michigan, assistant principal, and two pupils from this State will go out in October to remain at the school two years.

Mr. Burris has since his residence in California joined fate and fortune to one of his former female pupils, the marriage occurring last spring."

Political Disappointment.

There is said to be a great deal of disapsatisfaction among Kent county democrats over the appointment of Mr. Raughey to the office of Clerk of the Peace in that county. The fault is found, as so much with the appointment itself, as with the manner in which they it was made. Somebody would have complained anyhow, no matter who had been appointed, and it might as well have been one set as another. It was impossible for the Governor to please all.

New Harness Store.

Mr. A. H. Russell has removed to one of the new buildings recently erected by Mr. R. A.
Cochran, on the "Square," and opened a first-class Harness and Saddlery store. He has laid in a splendid stock and his show window presents as handsome an appearance as might be wished. He will also make, or mend, harness to order, and is ready to accommodate persons wanting things in his line at all times and on all occasions. Mr. Russell is an energetic man, and his store is a credit as well as a great convenience to the town and neighborhood, and he should receive the patronage he deserves.

Church Organization.

The congregation which, for some years past, has been meeting for Divine worship in the chapel at Armstrong's, recently made application to the New Castle Presbytery for license to be formed into a church relation.
This is the movement for a church organization which we mentioned last week.
The history of this enterprise is familiar to a majority of our readers: Starting as a Sabbath school seven years ago it has gradually grown in interest and increased in membership until it has reached a point where the congregation, which has grown out of the movement, feel themselves strong enough to form a church organization, and believing that their usefulness and religious privileges will be thereby increased, they have made application as above stated. Their request was, of course, granted by the Presbytery and the church organized.

The formal ceremonies of the organization will take place to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which time elders will be ordained, and an address to the newly organized church will be delivered by Rev.
Dr. Patton, after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. The occasion will, no doubt, be an interesting one, not only to those immediately concerned, but to all who may attend. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to be present.

The Temperance Meeting.

The Temperance folks had a big time last Sunday. As was previously announced, George M. Dutcher came down from Wilmington, accompanied by Col. John Moore, President of the Moral Reform Club; Col. H. B.
McIntire, Esq., Frazier, William Quinn, and one or two others. The meeting was called at half-past three, and the hall was crowded. Rev. Mr. Martindale presided and, while around him sat, on the stage, Rev. Dr. Patton, Governor Cochran, the Wilmington men and several of our own citizens, active in the Temperance cause.
Col. Moore was first introduced and after a few remarks was followed by Mr. McIntire.
Each of these gentlemen spoke in a pleasant, agreeable style and their remarks were well received. The next speaker was a young man named Hargis. This gentleman spoke his piece in first-class college boy oration style and gestulated considerably. He denun-ciated liquor dealers as entirely too violent, and the loss of him and of such speeches as his the Temperance meetings have, the better it will be for the cause.
Mr. George M. Dutcher followed this youth in an address of about an hour and a half length.
He seemed thoroughly in earnest and talked as though his whole soul was enlisted in the cause. His remarks were impressive and were listened to by the large audience with much attention, and had he stopped at the end of the first half hour, he might have accomplished a reasonable amount of good, but unfortunately he did not know when the stopping place was reached, and talked on and on until the patience of the people—seated as they were, on the most uncomfortable benches that human ingenuity ever invented, became exhausted, his repetitions grew tiresome, and the golden opportunity was lost. (Will public speakers learn to stop when they are through?)

At the close of Mr. Dutcher's address Mr.
Martindale presented the pledge, which he signed a few additional signatures; a collection was taken up for Mr. D's benefit, resulting in a neat sum. The meeting was then dismissed with the benediction.

And now we hope it will not be considered presumptuous, if we say to our good temperance managers that they will further their cause and give more general satisfaction if they will just be contented with our own ministers for speakers. Any one of the addresses which either Mr. Martindale or Dr.
Patton makes will be better received and do more good than any or all that these imported orators can make, at any time or under any circumstances.

EASTERN SHOE MATTERS.

The Snow Hill brass band is to be reorganized.
The ship-carpenters at Newtown are kept busy.
Grape vine is being made in large quantities in Wicomico.
The matrimonial market in Worcester is exceedingly dull.
Apples are plentiful in Wicomico and are selling at extremely low figures.
Chickens are very scarce at Salisbury. Oysters are becoming more plentiful and are bringing good prices.
Jervis Spencer's farm in Kent county, 234 acres, has been sold to George W. Spencer for $15,100.

An independent convention is called at Cambridge on the 24th of October to make nominations against the democratic ticket.

A hotel-keeper at North East, Cecil county, has brought suit for slander against a minister of that village.

For the first time in many years Elkton, Cecil county, has steamboat communication with the rest of mankind.

The autumn, so far, has been an unusually wet one on the Eastern Shore and the fodder has been badly damaged.

It is announced that the Somerset and Worcester railroad is to be sold at public sale at Princeton, N. J. on the 24th of October.

Charles M. Jumpy's farm, 150 acres, in Queen Anne's county, has been sold to William Render, of Northampton county, Pa., for $5,000.

Seaside oysters are beginning to be shipped to the northern markets. The oystermen are arguing that a profitable season is before them.

On Monday last week, by the bursting of a gun, Cora Saumones, a colored boy, of Morton, Md., had his hand so badly maimed that amputation was rendered necessary.

The Eastern Shore duckers are making ready for the winter campaign, and are getting their guns, decoys, boats, etc., in order. The ducks from the lake regions are putting in their appearance on the bay and river flats.

Miscellaneous.

Oliver Miller was recently cut at Chestertown by a young man with whom he had a discussion. The knife entered the side of his neck about an inch deep, and was then drawn around the throat without doing any serious damage, though it was a narrow escape. He was also cut across the face.

The Newtown Record and Gazette says that the proposed extension of the Worcester and Somerset railroad from Newtown to Chincoteague Bay is an assured thing and that the preliminaries, such as the survey, etc., have already been completed. The right of way has been freely given by land-owners on the route and the work of laying the track is expected to be begun in a short time.

The Salisbury Advertiser says we understand the lighthouse board has not yet taken steps to replace the light-house at Hopton's strait, which was carried away by the ice last winter. This is a misfortune to the commercial portion of our State, inasmuch as this is one of the most dangerous channels to navigate among the tributaries of the Chesapeake, especially to vessels coming across from the Potomac river, or from down the bay, on account of the uncertain soundings in that direction. It is to be hoped that the matter will be attended to at once.
